Dear Friends,

Since you are out of town celebrating one of the great events in a couple's life - the greatest of course is the wedding itself - I hasten to join you at least in writing.

I want to tell you that a man and a woman, so different in every way as the two of you are - are just for that the most exciting friends. Seldom have I met a more complementary and auspicious constellation. By knowing you as long as do, however, I have been able to find out much that could be judged as similarities - by that I mean your relation to art. To the musicianship of Henri Temianka, Emmi adds not only her looks - which I consider art in itself - but also her taste in dressing, her creating a home which is not just a house but has a special atmosphere, and finally her newly discovered talent for sculpture. And there are your two boys who have so much of what I see in you.

The gatherings of similar-minded friends, the hospitable warmth of both of you, is a very important asset to many lives in your environment. And that is why you deserve all the proofs of friendship and solidarity, and the heartfelt wishes to which I am adding mine.

*Always yours,
Marta Freuchtwang*
